What is an Apostille?

An Apostille is similar to an Authentication Certificate. This is used by the United States and other countries that signed the Hague Convention in 1961. Canada is not part of the Hague Convention so we use the Authentication Certificate.

What is a Notary Public?

A Notary Public is a person who is authorized to sign and seal documents that will be sent outside the Province of Manitoba and worldwide. Most lawyers are Notaries Public.

Where do I find a Notary Public?

You can find a Notary Public in any law office. You can find Lawyers or Notaries Public in the yellow pages of the telephone book. If you have been in Canada for less than two years the International Centre or Welcome Place may be able to help you. You need to call first to see if you qualify.

When would I need an Authentication?

You may need an Authentication certificate for documents that are being sent outside Canada and worldwide. You should call or look on the website of the Embassy or Consular Office to see if your document needs an Authentication certificate. Not all documents need to be authenticated. This process assures the Consulate and country receiving the document that it has been properly signed by the Notary Public.

Some examples of documents that need to be authenticated?

Documents that may need to be authenticated are notarial copies of the following:

- Birth certificates
- Marriage or divorce certificates
- Proof of non-marriage
- Powers of attorney
- Invitation to visit
- Degrees or student transcripts
- International business contracts
- Adoption papers.

If my document needs a picture attached to it does the Notary Public need to seal it?

Yes. Consulate had often recommend to paste your picture directly on the document then have the Notary Public impress part of his/her seal on the picture so that it cannot be removed.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do I need to send the Authenticated document to a Consulate or Embassy in Canada before I send it to the country?

You will need to contact the Consulate or Embassy to see if you need to send the document to them before you send it to the actual country. Most countries have an Embassy or Consulate office in Canada.
