COMPLETING THE FORMS

#3 of the form tends to be where most people have problems completing the forms. Here you must indicate under what Section of The Corporations Act the corporation is being dissolved. While we cannot provide any legal advice, the following is some explanation of the provisions:

203(1) – Dissolution before commencing business

If the corporation has not issued any shares and its directors have authorized the dissolution by resolution.

203(2) – Dissolution if no property

If the corporation has no liabilities and no property and its shareholders have authorized the dissolution by special resolution (i.e. two-thirds approval of the shareholders).

203(3) – Dissolution where property disposed of

If the corporation had property or liabilities at the time its shareholders authorized the dissolution by special resolution. It must no longer have property or liabilities by the time the Articles are filed.

204 - Proposing liquidation and dissolution

If the corporation has already filed a “Statement of Intent to Dissolve” (form 15).

Please contact a lawyer for more information on the legal requirements. Refer to The Corporations Act for the full text of the above sections.
