

Can a foreign Limited Partnership register in Manitoba?

No. Only Limited Partnerships formed within Canada can register as an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership under The Business Names Registration Act.

How do I register an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership?

A Registration of a Limited Partnership form must be filed. This form has been updated to include a section to indicate whether the registration is for a Manitoba Limited Partnership or an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership. If it is being filed for an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership, the following additional information must be provided:

- Home Jurisdiction
- Home Jurisdiction Registry Number
- Home Jurisdiction Registration Date

Forms and Fees:

- Request for Name Reservation - $45.00
- Filing Request - $0.00
- Registration of a Limited Partnership - $350.00
- Power of Attorney - $40.00

What owner information is required for an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership?

Only the names of the General Partners are required. Information about the Limited Partners must be obtained from the home jurisdiction.

If the General Partner is a corporation, is it required to be registered under The Corporations Act?

Yes.

Can a Limited Partnership continue to another jurisdiction?

No.

Can a Manitoba Limited Partnership be updated to an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership?

There are many Limited Partnerships currently registered under The Business Names Registration Act, which may in fact be extra provincial Limited Partnerships. If a change in the entity type is required, the following forms must be filed with the appropriate filing fees:

- Business Name Dissolution
- Registration of an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership

What happens if the name of the Limited Partnership is not available in Manitoba?

If the name is not available, it will be rejected. There are no provisions under The Business Names Registration Act for “restricted registrations” if the name is unavailable.

Can a Registration of a Limited Partnership be filed online?

Yes, but only for Limited Partnerships from BC, AB and SK. This is the recommended filing option.

Can a Numbered Limited Partnership register online?

Name Reservations are not required for Numbered Limited Partnerships (i.e. 98765432 SASKATCHEWAN LIMITED PARTNERSHIP). Clients may contact the Name Reservation Specialists or Document Examiners who will issue a reservation number after confirming that the partnership isn't already registered in Manitoba.

Do Extra Provincial Limited Partnerships file Renewals?

Yes, Extra Provincial Limited Partnerships must be renewed every 3 years.

Can the registration of a cancelled Extra Provincial Limited Partnership be restored?

No. A new registration is required.

When is a Power of Attorney form required?

- If the General Partner(s) is an individual who resides outside of Manitoba; a Power of Attorney must be filed with the Registration documents.
- If the General Partner(s) is a Corporation with an address outside of Manitoba, a Power of Attorney is not required as the Corporation will have a Attorney for Service appointed

Is a BN9 required when requesting a Business Number for an Extra Provincial Limited Partnership?

Yes.